General: African Exclusive, Inc d/b/a Safariline (hereinafter referred to as "Safariline') acts solely as the agent for the client in all respects.

Responsibility: It is clearly understood that Safariline acts only as agent for the passengers and books transportation, accommodation, restaurant, adventure activities and other related travel services and assumes no responsibility, howsoever caused, for personal injury, damage, loss, accident, expense, delay, act of God or military action beyond their control. Travelers bookings are accepted by Safariline as agent for the independent operators and the services provided by these operators are offered subject to the terms and conditions contained in the tickets, exchange orders or vouchers issued by them and/or their suppliers. Though Safariline has made every attempt to choose the best suppliers available it has no control over their operators procedures and can not be liable for any personal injury or property damage which may occur whether this is caused by wrongful, negligent or arbitrary acts, omissions on the part of a supplier, its employees and others not under the direct control of Safariline. The passenger ticket issued by the airline carrier is the sole contract between the passenger and the carrier. Safariline is not responsible for unexpected transportation delays and changes, nor liable for additional expenses or loss of time that may be incurred. Safariline shall not be responsible for any inadvertent errors on their website, listed in their brochure or other descriptive material. On advancement of deposit the depositors agree to be bound by the terms and conditions here mentioned.

Liability: As Safariline deals predominantly with third world countries which can experience problems such as vehicle breakdowns, lack of supplies (including fuel and spare parts) as well as drought and unusual conditions, Safariline can not be held responsible if the countries internal infrastructure causes adverse affects. Nor if these affects cause the ground operator from delivering the usual standard of service. While Safariline has made every attempt to retain the services of reliable trustworthy ground handlers, they can not be held liable for any routine or extraordinary variations to any tour or other problems which may arise. Safaris are by their nature adventure holidays where changes in the details and timing of an itinerary can vary depending on conditions prevailing and facilities available.

Insurance: Safariline requires all clients to purchase minimum travel protection insurance coverage. Clients residing outside the USA must purchase independent travel insurance and provide proof of coverage.

Booking Procedures & Payment Terms: In order to plan an itinerary and make a provisional booking on your behalf a Tour Registration Form must be completed with a nonrefundable deposit of US $250 per person, payable by credit card (American Express, Visa, MasterCard). Safariline will make every attempt to secure and contract the requested itinerary on behalf of its clients. All itineraries are subject to written confirmation. Airfare quotes are estimates only and subject to change until the tickets are issued. At time of confirmation 25% of the land tour cost is due (less the initial $250 per person paid). Upon receipt, pre-departure documents and itinerary will be sent. Sixty Days prior to departure, the final balance of your invoice is due payable by check, wire transfer or credit card (American Express, Visa, MasterCard, Discover). Also required at this time is proof of Trip Insurance. If reservation is effected within 60 days of commencement of travel, the entire amount is required at time of confirmation. If payment installments are not paid when due, Safariline reserves the right to treat the reservation as cancelled. A $50 reinstatement charge per person in addition to late charges calculated at 1.5% per month may be charged. Safariline reserves the right to terminate or decline to retain any person as a participant at any time.

Cancellation, Change Fees & Refunds.

Safariline will not cancel a tour, holiday or other travel arrangement once the client has paid in full unless it becomes necessary to do so as a result of hostilities, war or threat of war, civil strife, industrial dispute, terrorist unrest, active or threatened natural or nuclear disaster, fire or adverse weather conditions or if a group tour does not have a minimum required participants, or for any other adverse event beyond the control of Safariline. In the event of cancellation Safariline will inform the client without delay and will make every effort to offer a suitable and comparable alternative. The following cancellation fees apply:

Health / Inoculations

All participants should be in good health and capable of walking. For disabled passengers special provisions will be made by Safariline must be advised of this to plan accordingly. By forwarding the deposit for passage, the passenger certifies that he/she does not have any physical or other conditions of disability that would create a hazard for him/herself or other passengers that has not be advised in writing to Safariline.

Baggage

A maximum of 2 bags per person with a combined length, width and height o 106" (economy class) and 134" (first class) is allowed free of charge to your first overseas destination and from most points of return to the USA. No single bag to exceed 62" length. Carry-on baggage, should not exceed 45" in length. Beyond the first overseas stopover points as well as from some points of return to USA, a free weight allowance of 44 lb., (economy class) and 66 lbs (first class) applies. Please note that many fly-in Safaris operate with small aircraft and have weight restrictions with maximum of 12kq softsided baggage. Any additional baggage charges incurred are the sole responsibility of the traveler.
