Day 2 – 4:

Early Morning transfer to Arusha airport and your scheduled charter to Serengeti National Park. Met on arrival and after a game drive through the park arrive at your luxury camp where lunch awaits you. Siesta, afternoon game drive, evening showers and cocktails under the stars.

Experienced African chefs prepare fresh gourmet foods, from traditional Africa dishes to continental cuisine. Enjoy early morning tea or coffee, poured from a china service, English and continental breakfasts. The lodge offers a picnic lunch or breakfast on safari or buffet in camp, cocktails, and four course dinners. Sitting around the fire each evening, watching the sun's dying glow, brings the day to a perfect close.

Experienced guides make sure you safari experience is complete with herds of wildebeest, prides of lion and game as far as the eye can see. Watch the Plains unfold while sipping early morning tea or coffee with home made biscuits as you prepare for each new day from the verandah of your tent as the sun rises.

Day 5 – 7:

Morning transfer to the airport and schedule flight to Katavi National Park and Palahala camp.

Teeming with game and visited by less than 1500 tourists last year, Katavi is a wilderness paradise. A truly exciting experience.

Spend your evenings around a fire as you listen to the hippos in the river will finish off each day as ice cold drinks are served by our friendly staff.

Eight comfortably furnished tented suites, all with en-suite bathrooms, hot showers and flush toilets are situated on the banks of the Kapapa River. The lounge and dining room overlook the river where animals come to drink throughout the day and night. Dinners are served around log fires in a traditional open-air boma, or on one of the many platforms on the river bank. Palahala's excellent cuisine is assured to enhance your bush experience.

Day 8 – 11:

This morning, transfer for a short 20 minute flight to Lupita Island. Transfer by boat to the Island only 10 minutes away. Relaxation and plenty of activities await you.

Lupita Island rises up out of the pristine sapphire waters of historic Lake Tanganyika in the remote south western region of Tanzania. The island is prehistorically lush, extraordinarily private.

Laze by the pool and order your favorite cocktail with a good book from our library. Visit the spa, or have a private massage with your partner in your suite. Snorkel, swim or dive or take out a kayak into the pristine waters. Join us on our boats for sundowners and observe the most spectacular sunsets.

Trails meander among groups of huge boulders, and remnants of a farming village. Beach comb or skip stones. Let your guide escort you on a wonderful invigorating kayak and snorkeling excursion around the island and beyond or a PADI dive in 30 feet of visibility. Visit a nearby fishing village, unchanged for hundreds of years. See the amazing sunsets from the Winsor rose as you enjoy a sundowner cruise.

Day 12: Departure

Bid farewell to the beautiful Lupita Island as you transfer by light aircraft to Dar es Salaam for your outbound flights home.
